

Trienal Lievore Altherr Molina

An emblem of modernity, in 21st-century style, "Trienal" is adaptable to the kind of large public spaces created in contemporary architecture. It provides luxuriant seating, yet may wing us away on a flight of fantasy. Built using solid oak wood, the seat and back are in artfully curved plywood. It comes in 4 lengths, seating either 2 or 3 persons, with lateral wing tables, in all the customary finishes from Andreu World. This model received the Delta de Plata ADI FAD 1993 award.
